

SHOWS FROM BELOW

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contact: Amanda Blank
E: amandakblank@gmail.com
470.484.1369

Chris Knight, with special guest Travis Meadows, performing in the World Famous Volcano Room on Sunday, February 25th

Tickets are On Sale Now thru Ticketfly and CumberlandCavernsLive.com

Cumberland Caverns Live, the new concert series residing in the World-Famous Volcano Room, kicked off to an amazing start last Saturday with two exhilarating sets by Jon Stickley Trio and Front County. The excitement was in the air as fans, old and new, made their way 333 feet below to one of the “world’s most unique concert venues.” Guests enjoyed improved seating options, updated menu items and a smoother check-in process at the cave entrance.

Click here for a photo gallery of images from the show.

Cumberland Caverns Live is excited to host two distinguished songwriters to the stage for the second show of the 2018 series. On Sunday, February 25 at 3 p.m. Cumberland Caverns Live welcomes Chris Knight, with special guest Travis Meadows, to the World-Famous Volcano Room stage.

Beloved singer-songwriter Chris Knight hails from Kentucky and has established an adoring national fan base through his honest and relatable storytelling. Chris’ performances are often compared to country folk music legend John Prine, who by no surprise, is one of Chris’ earliest influencers.

Travis Meadows is an acclaimed hit songwriter with an incredible journey to share. His story of survival and success is inspirational, and his songwriting connects deeply to those who have listened or even more so, can relate.

Tickets are on sale now and can be purchased by visiting cumberlandcavernslive.com, Ticketfly.com, by calling 1.877.4-FLY-TIX (877-435-9849) or at the on-site box office on the day of the show.

For interview requests or press inquiries, please email Amanda Blank at amandakblank@gmail.com.